

New Zealand Portrait Gallery Te Pūkenga Whakaata Liz Stringer Curatorial Internship 2024 Job Description

1. PURPOSE OF POSITION

This will be an opportunity for the curatorial intern to develop their skills and knowledge across the wide range of activities that take place in a busy public art gallery which focuses on presenting a dynamic exhibition programme as well as building up a national collection which explores our national identity through the art of portraiture.

2. POSITION OVERVIEW

This is a fixed-term position for 8 months to be completed between May and December 2024.

The New Zealand Portrait Gallery, Liz Stringer Curatorial intern will:

- 1. Develop hands-on curatorial, collection and project management skills, as well as an understanding of the roles that public galleries with collections play in the community, and how they go about their work.
- 2. Develop curatorial skills including exhibition research and artwork selection, interpretation and public programme development.
- 3. Contribute new perspectives, connections and appreciation of portraiture to the New Zealand Portrait Gallery team and wider community.

The Curatorial intern reports to the Director of the New Zealand Portrait Gallery, and will have a close working relationship with the Gallery's team.

There will also be external working and liaison relationships required with curatorial advisors and collection staff in relevant regional galleries/museums, and with private lenders, to achieve the goals of the project.

| Key Result Areas | Accountabilities  | Measurement Methods                           |
|------------------|---|---|
| General Tasks    | To identify own skills and knowledge that will contribute to the project. | Skills and knowledge identified at interview. |

|               | To carry out the project and manageown workload to meet objectives andachieve results within deadlines.   | Project successfully completed.   |
|---------------|---|---|
|               | To maintain high professional standards of art gallery/museum practice.   | Knowledge of professional art gallery/museum practices demonstrated.  |
|               | To regularly meet with and maintaingood working relationships among theGallery staff.   | Gallery staff see intern as good to work with.  |
|               | To work within the guidelines of theMuseums Aotearoa code of ethics forart galleries/museums.   | Knowledge of the MuseumsAotearoa code of ethicsdemonstrated.  |
|               | To write a report on the internship forthe Gallery and the Chair of the NewZealand Portrait Gallery Trust, andTrustee Liz Stinger.  | Report completed within 5working days at conclusion ofproject.  |
| Project tasks | To assist with the planning anddevelopment of the internship projectby confirming the project's objectives,timeline and review dates.   | Objectives, timeline and reviewdate set and confirmed within 5working days of starting.                       |
|               | To maintain and develop effectivepartnerships with participatingcollecting institutions and privatelenders.   | Successful communications,research results and approval ofloan requests for selectedartworks.             |
|               | To provide a list of artworks for theexhibition, complete with title,medium, size, insurance values (ifpossible) lender's loan conditions andcontact details as well as brief notesregarding reason for choice andpreference etc. | Spreadsheet of artworks andcoinciding images produced asper agreed timeline.                                  |
|               | To document all processes and communications related to the exhibition.   | Files are up to date and saved inNZPG's office 365 including loandocumentation and lendercontact details. |
|               | To conduct research for the exhibition interpretation.  | Written information for eachwork and an exhibitionoverarching concept essay                                   |

|                               |  | produced as per agreed timeline.   |
|-------------------------------|--|--|
| OrganisationalObligations | To demonstrate a commitment to andunderstanding of the principles ofbiculturalism as they relate to theGallery and its programmes. | Knowledge of biculturalism and multiculturalism demonstrated in development of exhibition.       |
|                               | To promote safe work practices and ensure a safe working environment.  | The Gallery's Health and SafetyPolicy is observed.   |
|                               | Promotion of activities and initiativesthat assist the New Zealand PortraitGallery to achieve its mission.                             | Contribution made to anexhibition project that enhancesand promotes role of the Gallery. |

3. WORKING RELATIONSHIPS

| INTERNAL RELATIONSHIPS   |  |  |
|--|--|--|
| Most frequent contacts   | Nature or purpose of contact   |  |
| New Zealand Portrait Gallery Director                            | Guidance with exhibition development and toreach the New Zealand Portrait Gallery's strategicgoals and vision. |  |
| New Zealand Portrait Gallery Registrar & Exhibitions Coordinator | Gain knowledge of installation of exhibitions, care and development of collections.                                    |  |
| New Zealand Portrait Gallery AudienceEngagement Coordinator  | Assist with designing an exhibition public programme and visitor experience.   |  |

| EXTERNAL RELATIONSHIPS                                   |   |  |
|--|---|--|
| Most frequent contacts                                   | Nature or purpose of contact  |  |
| Curatorial mentor.                                       | Guidance with exhibition and concept development.   |  |
| Colleagues in other participating cultural institutions. | Collaboration and information sharing,ascertaining availability and loan conditions ofselected portraits in external collections.   |  |
| Private Lenders  | Ascertaining availability and loan conditions of selected portraits and fostering good relationships and ongoing commitment to the Gallery. |  |

| EXTERNAL RELATIONSHIPS             |   |
|------------------------------------|---|
| Most frequent contacts             | Nature or purpose of contact  |
| Stakeholders such as key sponsors. | Fostering good relationships and ongoing commitment to the Gallery. |

4. QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS

| FORMAL QUALIFICATIONS/CERTIFICATES   |   |  |
|--|---|--|
| Essential:   | Desirable:  |  |
| Tertiary qualification in art history, museumstudies, fine arts or a related subject, or relevantequal experience. |   |  |
| EXPERIENCE/OTHER   |   |  |
| Essential:   | Desirable:  |  |
| Enthusiasm for the visual arts and the potential of museums and galleries to enrich people's lives.                        | Experience working or volunteering in a cultural institution. |  |
| Curatorial interest and/or experience.   | Experience communicating to a variety of                      |  |
| Knowledge of New Zealand's art scene, artists and  | audiences.  |  |
| arts institutions. In particular, an interest in New Zealand portraiture art.  | Openness to the needs, expectations and values of artists.    |  |
| Ability to work as part of a close-knit and collaborative team.  | Openness to the needs, expectations and values of visitors.   |  |
| Comfortable using common computer programmes/email.  |   |  |
|  |   |  |
|  |   |  |